Description: Tape Measure

The true measure of a man is not in money, sex, or athletic ability, but in his value and heart before the LORD.

Scripture: 1 Samuel 16:7

"But the LORD said to Samuel, 'Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.'"

Story: Mike Singletary

Mike was selected by the Chicago Bears with the 38th pick in the 1981 NFL draft. An undersized middle linebacker from Baylor, he was cat like quick and nearly impossible to block. But, Mike was far less than optimal in regards to his size. NFL linebackers average 6'2" and 247 lbs. Singletary was 6'0" tall and weighed 230 lbs. The measure of Mike Singletary was NOT in his physical size. He was a lion on the football field. A ten-time pro-bowler, two-time defensive player of the year, a member of the 80's All-Decade Team, Hall of Famer, and the heart of arguably the best defensive unit to ever play the game of football, the 1985 Chicago Bears. Mike played above his size on the football field. His highest value was his heart. The LORD is not concerned with your size or appearance. You are of the utmost value to Him, not because of your talents, but because of your heart. He simply wants you...ALL of you! From the inside, out.
