

FCA Toolbox ©
Building Women of Character

Description: Needle nose pliers
These pliers are a precision instrument, designed to grip and hold a very small point. The lesson of the pliers is excellence. If you concern yourself with the small details, then the big picture will take care of itself.

Scripture: Luke 16:10
“Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.”

Story: John Wooden and his player’s socks
What Coach Wooden achieved on the basketball court is unprecedented. At UCLA his teams won ten men’s NCAA Championships in 12 years, including seven in a row. While coaching Wooden developed and lived by his “Pyramid of Success.” Coach Wooden went to great lengths to emphasize the small details that he felt were most important...even down to how his players put on their socks! It is well documented that he would sit his players down as a team and teach them how to properly put on their socks and shoes to help eliminate blisters. Something as small as a blister could at best hinder and at worst prevent a player from playing. Paul told the Christ followers at Ephesus that among them there shouldn’t be even a hint of sexual immorality or of any kind of impurity! The LORD is concerned about the details of our lives. If we sweat the small stuff, the big stuff will fall into place.

Toolbox Overtime:
Ephesians 5:3, 1 Corinthians 10:31, 1 Corinthians 9:24, 2 Timothy 4:7, Matthew 25:14-30

FCA Toolbox ©
Building Women of Character

Description: Needle nose pliers
These pliers are a precision instrument, designed to grip and hold a very small point. The lesson of the pliers is excellence. If you concern yourself with the small details, then the big picture will take care of itself.

Scripture: Luke 16:10
“Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.”

Story: John Wooden and his player’s socks
What Coach Wooden achieved on the basketball court is unprecedented. At UCLA his teams won ten men’s NCAA Championships in 12 years, including seven in a row. While coaching Wooden developed and lived by his “Pyramid of Success.” Coach Wooden went to great lengths to emphasize the small details that he felt were most important...even down to how his players put on their socks! It is well documented that he would sit his players down as a team and teach them how to properly put on their socks and shoes to help eliminate blisters. Something as small as a blister could at best hinder and at worst prevent a player from playing. Paul told the Christ followers at Ephesus that among them there shouldn’t be even a hint of sexual immorality or of any kind of impurity! The LORD is concerned about the details of our lives. If we sweat the small stuff, the big stuff will fall into place.

Toolbox Overtime:
Ephesians 5:3, 1 Corinthians 10:31, 1 Corinthians 9:24, 2 Timothy 4:7, Matthew 25:14-30

FCA Toolbox ©
Building Women of Character

Description: Needle nose pliers
These pliers are a precision instrument, designed to grip and hold a very small point. The lesson of the pliers is excellence. If you concern yourself with the small details, then the big picture will take care of itself.

Scripture: Luke 16:10
“Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.”

Story: John Wooden and his player’s socks
What Coach Wooden achieved on the basketball court is unprecedented. At UCLA his teams won ten men’s NCAA Championships in 12 years, including seven in a row. While coaching Wooden developed and lived by his “Pyramid of Success.” Coach Wooden went to great lengths to emphasize the small details that he felt were most important...even down to how his players put on their socks! It is well documented that he would sit his players down as a team and teach them how to properly put on their socks and shoes to help eliminate blisters. Something as small as a blister could at best hinder and at worst prevent a player from playing. Paul told the Christ followers at Ephesus that among them there shouldn’t be even a hint of sexual immorality or of any kind of impurity! The LORD is concerned about the details of our lives. If we sweat the small stuff, the big stuff will fall into place.

Toolbox Overtime:
Ephesians 5:3, 1 Corinthians 10:31, 1 Corinthians 9:24, 2 Timothy 4:7, Matthew 25:14-30

FCA Toolbox ©
Building Women of Character

Description: Needle nose pliers
These pliers are a precision instrument, designed to grip and hold a very small point. The lesson of the pliers is excellence. If you concern yourself with the small details, then the big picture will take care of itself.

Scripture: Luke 16:10
“Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.”

Story: John Wooden and his player’s socks
What Coach Wooden achieved on the basketball court is unprecedented. At UCLA his teams won ten men’s NCAA Championships in 12 years, including seven in a row. While coaching Wooden developed and lived by his “Pyramid of Success.” Coach Wooden went to great lengths to emphasize the small details that he felt were most important...even down to how his players put on their socks! It is well documented that he would sit his players down as a team and teach them how to properly put on their socks and shoes to help eliminate blisters. Something as small as a blister could at best hinder and at worst prevent a player from playing. Paul told the Christ followers at Ephesus that among them there shouldn’t be even a hint of sexual immorality or of any kind of impurity! The LORD is concerned about the details of our lives. If we sweat the small stuff, the big stuff will fall into place.

Toolbox Overtime:
Ephesians 5:3, 1 Corinthians 10:31, 1 Corinthians 9:24, 2 Timothy 4:7, Matthew 25:14-30